Essential oils have been an integral part of the natural healing process of body and mind. For creating a calming ambiance, our essential oil kit contains six oils that are well known for their unique benefits and properties.

This specially created pack contains eucalyptus, peppermint, lavender, sweet orange, lemongrass and tea tree oils, known for their cooling, energizing, and purifying qualities.

An essential oil kit makes an ideal gift and is an excellent way to introduce family and friends to the holistic benefits of aromatherapy oils. These oils are pure and potent and should be used after being diluted. They work well as a diffuser oil by adding a few drops with water to an oil burner or electric diffuser.
